

Secondary Transition

Our focus for the children this term will centre around Transition to secondary school and equipping them with the skills necessary to settle in in September.

Science

'Animals including Humans'

To identify and name the main parts of the human circulatory system, and describe the functions of the heart, blood vessels and blood.

To recognise the impact of diet, exercise, drugs and lifestyle on the way their bodies function.

To describe the ways in which nutrients and water and transported within animals, including humans.

To explore the work of medical pioneers, for example, William Harvey and Galen and recognise how much we have learnt about our bodies.

To compare the organ systems of humans to other animals.

To make a diagram of the human body and explain how different parts work and depend on one another.

To name the major organs in the human body.

Geography

To be able to read ordnance survey maps using six-grid references.

To know the signs and symbols used in ordnance survey maps.

To confidently explain scale and use maps with a range of scales

To use OS maps to answer questions

DT

Dioramas

To justify why chosen materials are best for the task.

To justify design in relation to the audience.

To evaluate if the product meets all design criteria.

What did the Maya offer the world?

Summer 2

PE

Rounders

To perform and apply a variety of skills and techniques confidently, consistently and with precision.

To make a team plan and communicate it to others.

To lead others in a team situation.

Tennis

To explain complicated rules.

To show precision, control and fluency.

To apply skills, techniques and ideas consistently.

Computing

Web Design

To explore a website

To discuss the different types of media used on websites

To know that websites are written in HTML

To recognise the common features of a web page

To suggest media to include on my page

To draw a web page layout that suits my purpose

To explain what a navigation path is

To describe why navigation paths are useful

To make multiple web pages and link them using hyperlinks

RE

Theme: Beliefs and Meaning

Key Question: Does belief in Akhriah (life after death) help Muslims lead better lives?

Religion: Islam

Music

In Music we will be preparing for and learning the songs of our Summer production

To perform parts from memory

To provide rhythmic support

To take on solo parts

To sing in harmony confidently and accurately