South Hill School Governors

Hans Peters

Hans was born in Hemel Hempstead and has lived here all his life. He retired in 2018 having worked at John Lewis in Watford for over 40 years. Hans was appointed as a co-opted Governor in December 2017. He has one granddaughter at South Hill. He is currently Chair of Governors and holds the Governor link roles of Safeguarding and Key Stage 1.

Shree Junk

Shree Junk has two sons that attend South Hill, she is an American of Indian descent that was born in Houston, TX and has been in the UK for the last 14 years. Shree is the Director of Philanthropy and Alumnae Relations at the North London Collegiate School.

Sam Marsden

Originally from Gloucestershire, Sam moved to Boxmoor with his family in 2011. His son was previously a pupil at South Hill and his partner was also a governor at the school - he himself became a co-opted governor in 2025. He is a national newspaper journalist and enjoys walking in the beautiful countryside around Hemel.

Roxanne Tipton

Roxanne is a Dispute Resolution Solicitor and a parent of three young children. Her eldest has recently started Reception at South Hill. As a parent governor, she hopes to bring a thoughtful and balanced perspective to the role, supporting the school in providing a positive and inclusive environment where every child feels supported and has the opportunity to thrive.

Sapna Mock

Sapna has lived in Hemel Hempstead for 11 years. She has two school age children. Sapna is an accountant specialising in Corporate Finance with a Big 4 background. Sapna is very passionate about education and served previously on the Pro Manchester Skills Committee consisting of members from secondary, further, and higher education providers, as well as employers and recruiters.

Claire Peters

Claire is mum to Eliza and Katie and step mum to Billy and Josh. She has lived in Boxmoor for over 30 years and attended South Hill School herself! She is Director of School Improvement, secondary for Alban Academies Trust, a trust which includes three secondary schools and four primary schools local to St Albans

Seku Sisulu

Seku is the proud parent of a Year 6 child who loves South Hill. As a Parent Governor, he would like to give back what he can to the school. Seku is the Head of Computer Science in a North London secondary school and has experience in the industry. He hopes he can help the parents, staff, governors and pupils to keep South Hill moving in the right direction.

Lindsey Vallis

Lindsey has a child at South Hill and is a Service Director for a neighbouring local authority. Outside of work she enjoys spending time outdoors and with friends and family. As a parent governor she hopes to be able to support the school to continue to provide a high-quality education for children.

Bradley Kilty

Bradley is a member of Staff at South Hill leading in PE lessons, sports events and football fixtures for all three football teams. He is very passionate about his role at South Hill and wants to see all pupils strive to be the best they can be.

Emma Macey

Emma is mum to Sophie and Abbie and has lived in Boxmoor for almost 10 years, where her husband (Fr. Mike as he's known at school!) is Vicar. Her background is in political research, but since having the girls she has been an Executive Assistant. Emma has an active interest in Education, having worked alongside organisations like the National Literacy Trust and Teach First over the past 15 years.
